

For the Love of it all (Janie Meneely / Rob van Sante)

Things that we do, the words that we say
Wash along the shores of time
Sharing our hopes, living our dreams
Revealing our hearts and minds

Chorus:

We each play our part; we're all on a stage
The curtain will rise; it will fall
Sing from the heart, speak from the soul
Dance for the love of it all

Children are the witness, neighbours hear the words
They see what we hold in our arm if we bear solace, if we bear swords
If we bring peace or harm

Chorus

Choosing the truth, choosing the light
Choosing justice over fear
Setting the scene for a world we seek--
So our children carry on from here

Chorus etc.
