

Chesapeake Café

by Chesapeake Charter School students (Lexington Park, MD)

At the bottom of the Bay at the end of the day
Everyone's hanging out
Crab's on drums, oyster's on bass
Jellyfish are jiving all over the place
Well, the lights are low and the place to go is the Chesapeake Cafe
Where the snacks are free and the soda's bubbly
When the band starts in to play

CHORUS:

Dogfish do the cha-cha
Catfish do the swing
Watch the rockfish shimmy
While the sunfish does his thing
Bluefish does the boogie
Flounder does the flop
Toadfish does the two-step
Till everybody drops

Dolphin is the DJ, they tell him what to play
And everybody sings along
Clams tap their foot, Seahorse gives a shout
Barnacles are wriggling and jiggling about
Turtles start to move, Stingray starts to groove, Periwinkles come alive
When the dancers take the floor, the Otter shout for more
And the Eel do the electric slide

CHORUS

At the bottom of the Bay at the end of the day
Everyone's having fun
They're in a whirl, they're asking for more
Till somebody says, "There's a shark at the door!"
The shark comes inside, folks move aside but he sits at the piano to play
Fins start to snap, claws start to tap
At the Chesapeake Cafe

CHORUS

At the bottom of the Bay at the end of the day
Everyone's hanging out
Crab's on drums, oyster's on bass
Jellyfish are jiving all over the place
Well, the lights are low and the place to go is the Chesapeake Cafe
Where the snacks are free and the soda's bubbly
When the band starts in to play