

Living by the River

by Janie Meneely

Living by the river is something easy
Green grass growing, bending in the breeze
Everyone everywhere take their ease
As the sun goes hunkering down
Evening on the river is bound to please you
Lightning bugs blink just to tease you
Chase 'em boys, if you ever need to Brightest lights in town

CHORUS:

It's Summertime and the fish are biting
Autumn winds, so inviting
Winter ain't much, then comes spring
And you're headed right back to the river again
Headed right back to the river again

Sailing down the river is bright and lazy
Catspaws kickin' through the morning haze
Everyone's countin' out Saturdays
As the heron goes squawking by Fish are jumpin' and it's just amazing
Nothing on the river ever seems to phase 'em
Just keep going like someone pays 'em
To jump across the sky.

CHORUS

Lovin' by the river gets sweet and sassy
Do-si-do and feelin' brassy
Grab your honey and do a sashay
Keep 'em coming round
Me and my fella we move so easy
Living by the river just makes us crazy
Honeysuckle and the black-eyed daisy
Race you into town

CHORUS

Headed right back to the river again
Headed right back to the river again
