You be the rising, I'll be the fall
You be the caller, I'll be the call
You be the sunlight, I'll be the moonrise
Sign down the starlight There's plenty for all

CHORUS:

Fiddler won't you play on, set your bow strings on fire
Let the dance fill the empty and heartwings enflame
Set your souls full on merry and your bowls full of cider
Dapple down dilly dapple, dapple down dilly-o
Dapple down dilly dapple, dapple down dilly-o

You be the ember, I'll be the flame
You be the wild one, I'll be the tame
You be the storm wind, I'll be the vesper
You be the thunder, I'll be the rain

CHORUS

You be the morning, I'll be the mountain
You be the kingdom, I'll be the crown
You be the dewfall, I'll be the teardrop
Together our blessings we'll lay on the ground
